As a top-tier manufacturer situated in China, Heao Group specializes in creating cutting-edge and sustainable puppy dual layers chew toys, setting a standard for excellence in the industry. The toy is an innovative and versatile natural rubber dog toy designed to bring a new level of excitement and interaction to your furry friend's playtime, both day and night.

Double-Layer Ball Design:

The dual layers chew toys features a double-layer ball design, with a sturdy natural rubber exterior encasing a hollow interior. This robust construction ensures the toy can withstand rough play and chewing, making it a durable companion for your canine companion.

Interactive Treat Dispensing:

The body of the ball is covered in numerous small holes, strategically placed to create an interactive treat dispensing feature. Simply fill the hollow interior with your dog's favorite treats or kibble, and as your dog plays with the ball, the treats will fall out through the holes, enticing them to keep playing and working for their rewards.

Promotes Physical and Mental Stimulation:

The dual layers chew toys offers an engaging way to keep your dog physically and mentally stimulated. The challenge of retrieving treats from the ball keeps their mind active, while chasing and playing with the glowing toy provides essential exercise and energy release.
